The Value of Work

Name _____

Date _____

Directions: Read the fable. Then answer the questions.

The Ant and the Grasshopper

One summer day, Grasshopper was hopping about, happily chirping and singing. Meanwhile, Ant marched slowly by, carrying a heavy load of corn to his nest.

"Why don't you sit and visit with me?" asked the Grasshopper. "You work so hard all the time."

"I am working hard to store and save food for the winter," said the Ant. "You would be wise to do the same thing."

"Why should I worry about winter?" questioned the Grasshopper. "We have plenty of food for today." Ant just shook his head and kept marching along.

When winter arrived, Ant was able to eat well. He had saved enough food. He could feast upon the corn he had worked so hard to save all summer long. Meanwhile, Grasshopper had no food. He was very hungry and wished he had listened to Ant.

What lesson did Grasshopper learn from this experience?

What did Ant do that was wise?

---

Describe a time when you wished you had listened to someone's wise advice.

The Big Race

Date _____

Directions: Read the fable. Then answer the questions.

The Tortoise and the Rabbit

The Rabbit liked to brag of his speed to all the other animals. "I have never lost a race," he said. "I challenge anyone here to beat me in a race!"

The Tortoise said quietly, "I accept your challenge."

"That is a good joke," laughed the Rabbit. "I can easily win against you."

"I wouldn't be so sure," answered the Tortoise. "Shall we race?"

So a race course was set up, and the day of the race came. The Tortoise and the Rabbit lined up on the starting line. Ready, set, go! The Rabbit sprinted almost out of sight at once, but soon stopped so that he might show off a bit. He laughed at the Tortoise's slow speed. Still laughing, he sat down beneath a tree and decided to take a short nap. The Tortoise continued to slowly plod on and on. When the Rabbit awoke from his nap, he saw the Tortoise just near the finish line. He jumped up and hopped as quickly as he could toward the finish. He could not catch up in time to win the race. The Tortoise crossed the line first and was named as the winner!

What is the lesson of this fable? _____

Why did the Rabbit think it wasn't a problem to sit down and take a nap?

Why do you think that the Tortoise thought he had a chance to win against the Rabbit?

The Value of Work

ANSWER KEY

Some answers may vary.

The Ant and the Grasshopper

One summer day, Grasshopper was hopping about, happily chirping and singing. Meanwhile, Ant marched slowly by, carrying a heavy load of corn to his nest.

"Why don't you sit and visit with me?" asked the Grasshopper. "You work so hard all the time."

"I am working hard to store and save food for the winter," said the Ant. "You would be wise to do the same thing."

"Why should I worry about winter?" questioned the Grasshopper. "We have plenty of food for today." Ant just shook his head and kept marching along.

When winter arrived, Ant was able to eat well. He had saved enough food. He could feast upon the corn he had worked so hard to save all summer long. Meanwhile, Grasshopper had no food. He was very hungry and wished he had listened to Ant.

What lesson did Grasshopper learn from this experience?

The Grasshopper learned that you should work now to prepare for the future. Work now, play later.

What did Ant do that was wise?

The Ant worked hard to save his food for the winter.

Describe a time when you wished you had listened to someone's wise advice.

The Big Race

ANSWER KEY

Some answers may vary.

The Tortoise and the Rabbit

The Rabbit liked to brag of his speed to all the other animals. "I have never lost a race," he said. "I challenge anyone here to beat me in a race!"

The Tortoise said quietly, "I accept your challenge."

"That is a good joke," laughed the Rabbit. "I can easily win against you."

"I wouldn't be so sure," answered the Tortoise. "Shall we race?"

So a race course was set up, and the day of the race came. The Tortoise and the Rabbit lined up on the starting line. Ready, set, go! The Rabbit sprinted almost out of sight at once, but soon stopped so that he might show off a bit. He laughed at the Tortoise's slow speed. Still laughing, he sat down beneath a tree and decided to take a short nap. The Tortoise continued to slowly plod on and on. When the Rabbit awoke from his nap, he saw the Tortoise just near the finish line. He jumped up and hopped as quickly as he could toward the finish. He could not catch up in time to win the race. The Tortoise crossed the line first and was named as the winner!

What is the lesson of this fable? The lesson is that slow and steady wins the race.

(OR Never underestimate your opponent.)

Why did the Rabbit think it wasn't a problem to sit down and take a nap?

He thought the Tortoise was so slow there was no way he would pass him and win.

Why do you think that the Tortoise thought he had a chance to win against the Rabbit?

Answers will vary.
